Relevant Legal Statutes on Gambling in Missouri*

The legal age for gambling is 21. It is illegal for Missouri casinos to offer free alcoholic beverage.

Missouri riverboat casinos are not required to cruise, although they were originally required to close boarding for a two-hour-long gaming session until this restriction was removed in 2000. Another original restriction was a $500 loss limit on each gaming session, eliminated in 2008 via a state-wide referendum.

Winning a jackpot or cash prize of $1,200 or more in Missouri results in the casino withholding 4% of the winnings as an income state tax. Filing an annual state income tax return with Missouri may return some or all of these tax, highly dependent upon other, overall aspects of your annual income tax filings.
