Introduction to Nebraska Slot Machine Casino Gambling 2017

Nebraska slot machine casino gambling is a bit perplexing, due to the lack of a state gaming commission to establish clear state gaming regulations. The Nebraska legislature has defined games of chance and gambling very differently from other states. Basically, these legal definitions are highly limited.

Nebraska has 21 casinos that offer a total of about 900 video gaming machines. Slot machines are not available, but the relatively poor substitute of video bingo is available along with video keno and video poker electronic gaming machines.

No publicly available monthly reports on payout percentage returns are available for Nebraska.

Relevant Legal Statutes on Gambling in Nebraska***

There is no minimum age for gambling in Nebraska because, as defined by the Nebraska legislature, gambling is illegal and therefore doesn't legally exist.

The Nebraska legislature has identified games of chance as being gambling, and that all forms of gambling are illegal. However, Nebraska law does not define keno, pickle cards, bingo, the state lottery, racing, and more as being games of chance. Therefore, by law, these activities do not qualify as gambling. So, again by Nebraska law, they are not illegal.

Under that interesting interpretation of games of chance and gambling by the Nebraska legislature, there are truly no legal forms of gambling in Nebraska. By most other states accepted definitions of gambling, however, it does exist.

So, if you'd like to play a typical electronic gaming device such as video keno, video poker, or video bingo, then there are about 21 locations in Nebraska that, combined, have nearly a thousand gaming machines. These locations are casinos, but gambling does not occur there. Because, well, that would be illegal.
